This thesis is dedicated to all those who thought I'd never make it…Honestly, I'm as surprised as you are.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I'd like to thank my committee members, parents, and peers for their constant encouragement, guidance, and all too occasional chastisement. Without their help I would never have been able to complete this program. Dr. Boehlje has been a continuous resource of wisdom, both regarding my thesis and in life. Dr. Gunderson's ability to provide guidance at a moment's notice (despite my best efforts to catch him off guard) made this thesis and its analysis possible. Without the endless office meetings I would never have been able to complete this thesis. Lastly, Professor Baker has become one of my favorite professors inside and outside the classroom. His good nature and entertaining student-oriented teaching style should be a required experience in the graduate program. Lastly, I would like to that Ross Brent of Michigan State University. Without his collaborative effort this thesis would not have been possible.

I'd also like to thank my office mate, Seth Boone. Without his help I would have completed this thesis on time, but perhaps without my sanity. I owe and incalculable debt to my family, friends, and everyone else who listened to my endless despairing. Finally, I'd like to thank Lou Ann Bough. She has been an incredible encouragement during my time at Purdue.

ABSTRACT xi

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION TO MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS 1

1.1 Motivation –M&A Transactions in the World Today 1

1.2 Problem Statement 2

1.3 Hypotheses & Stages of Analysis 3

1.4 Conclusion 9

CHAPTER 2. LITERATURE REVIEW 10

2.1 Valuation processes, Markets, and Event Studies 10

2.1.1 Discounted Cash Flows 11

2.1.2 Liquidation and Accounting Valuation 11

2.1.3 Relative Valuation 12

2.1.4 Contingent Claim Valuation 12

2.1.5 Stock Price Adjustments and Market Efficiency 13

2.2 Food and Agribusiness M&A 14

2.3 Impacts of M&A on Acquirers vs Targets 17

2.3.1 Acquirer Impact Summary 17

2.3.2 Target Impact Summary 19

2.4 M&A in Event Study Literature 21

2.4.1 General Overview of M&A in Event Studies 21

2.4.2 Short Run Event Studies 22

2.4.3 Long Run Event Studies 23

2.5 Normal Return Models 26

2.5.1 Normal Return Models 26
2.5.2 The Market-adjusted, Market, and Fama-French Three Factor Models 27
2.5.3 Regressions upon Abnormal Returns 28
2.6 Conclusion 29
CHAPTER 3. DATA COLLECTION SUMMARY 31
3.1 Thompson One / SDC Database 31
3.1.1 Selected Transactions & Data Trends 36
3.1.2 Transaction Value & Value Groupings 43
3.1.3 Relative Size & Relative Size Grouping 47
3.2 CRSP / Eventus Databases 49
3.3 Compustat Database & Company Financials 52
CHAPTER 4. METHODOLOGY 54
4.1 Event Study Windows and Models 54
4.1.1 The Market Model 56
4.1.2 Market-Adjusted Model 57
4.2 Abnormal Returns 57
4.2.1 Cumulative Abnormal Returns CAR 57
4.2.2 Buy and Hold Abnormal Returns BHAR 58
4.3 Statistical Tests on Returns 58
4.3.1 The Patell Test Statistic 58
4.3.2 The Generalized Sign Z Test 59
4.3.3 The Skewness Corrected T Test 60
4.4 Regressions on Returns 60
CHAPTER 5. EVENT STUDY RESULTS 63
5.1 General Short Run Results 63
5.2 Acquirer Short Run Event Study Results 65
5.2.1 Acquirer Returns by Size, Value, and Industry 70
5.3 Target Short Run Event Study Results 71
5.3.1 Target Returns by Size, Value, and Industry 75

5.4 Acquirer Long Run Event Study Results 76
5.4.1 Acquirer Long Run Event Windows 76
5.4.2 Acquirer Market Model Returns by Size, Value, and Industry 80
5.5 Model and Return Comparison and Discussion 82
5.5.1 Market Model to Market Adjusted Model 82
5.5.2 Target to Acquirer Returns 85
5.6 Conclusion 87
CHAPTER 6. OLS REGRESSIONS ON ABNORMAL RETURNS 89
6.1 Acquirer Short Run Return OLS Regressions & Models 89
6.2 Target Short Run Return OLS Regressions & Models 94
6.3 Acquirer Long Run Return OLS Regressions & Models 97
6.4 Regression Comparisons and Discussion 100
6.5 Conclusion 101
CHAPTER 7. LONG RUN PERFORMANCE CHANGES 103
7.1 Performance Increases or Decreases 103
7.2 Performance Metrics Over Time 104
7.3 Conclusion 108
CHAPTER 8. CONCLUSION 110
8.1 Short Run Impact of M&A – Acquirers and Targets 110
8.2 Long Run Impact of M&A -- Acquirers 111
8.3 Further Research 112
